Hey lovely people,

Spring is in full flow here in sometimes–sunny–and–sometimes–rainy Bournemouth, and the energies are certainly flowing fast in the office. We have a queue of lovely books lined up for publication, and the next one out of the stable is Horary Astrology: The Practical Way to Learn Your Fate; it will be available in April.

There seems to be a lot of interest in medical astrology recently. Could this be due to all the coughs and sneezes around at the moment? I've included some of our relevant titles in case you feel drawn to find out a bit more. Enjoy!

Horary Astrology The Practical Way to Learn Your Fate

Petros Eleftheriadis

Horary astrology is a fascinating and exacting technique, and here is the perfect book to hone your skills. Author Petros Eleftheriadis presents over fifty valid charts taken from his client files which demonstrate, in clear steps, how to reach an answer. He stresses the importance of starting with the correct question; for instance, he doesn't accept 'Should I?' questions, saying 'Astrology charts cannot possibly show something that will NEVER materialize, something that will never become reality, so they cannot show how your life would be, had you made another decision.' So rather than asking whether you will win the lottery if you buy a ticket, the correct action would be to buy the ticket then ask if you will win. Ideal for students and professionals with some knowledge of horary astrology. £12.50 postage not included.

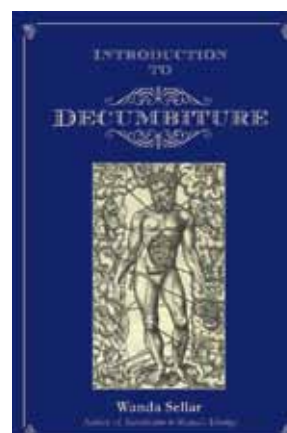

Introduction to Medical Astrology

Wanda Sellar

An accessible introduction which includes the history of astrology and medicine. Using clear delineations and copious case histories Wanda Sellar demonstrates how to unravel the medical dilemmas in the natal chart.

£15.99 postage not included

Introduction to Decumbiture

Wanda Sellar

Decumbiture is a traditional technique used in medical astrology to discover the causes of an illness and to ascertain if the treatment is working and whether recovery is likely. An ideal companion to Introduction to Medical Astrology.
