Well - I like the new layout so it will be staying for a while. Do you like the sunshine in the background? I thought it would be nice shot of happiness for those of us in the northern latitudes who maybe don't see the sun as much. It is also a good way to break the news that the price of TMA will be going up from the 1st June, so if you want to renew early or buy a subscription as a gift, you have until then to do it. I really hate to do this, but we haven't put our prices up since 2012, and in the ensuing years we have absorbed all the price rises from couriers, Royal Mail and mailing houses without saying a word. However - the good news is that it isn't much at all, and it brings us into line with other similar publications. Prices will be as follows: UK subscription will be £42.00 for 1 year (was £40.00) and £82.00 for 2 years, European subscriptions will be £50 (was £48.00) and £98.00.

I'm delighted to announce that another new book is ready to fly the nest and should be available mid-May. Geodetic Astrology For Relocating and World Affairs has been a true labour of love for Chris McRae, who has studied this area of astrology for decades. With world events moving faster than we can follow, this book provides an indispensable guide to tracking everything from high school shoot-outs to tsunamis and volcanoes. Read and enjoy. £15.50 plus postage.
